EATON'S ARITHMETIC.

BANGOR, Oct. 30, 1858.
At a meeting of the School Committee, held this evening, it was ORDERED—That EATON'S ARITHMETIC be introduced into our Intermediate, Grammar and Select Schools, instead of Greenleaf's, now in use. Attest, (Signed) FRED'K E SHAW, Sec'y.
The decided satisfaction which this book gives in the school room, and its unprecedented success, prove that it is a work of rare merit.
All those who are dissatisfied with the books now in use, are requested to give this an examination.
They will find it the most clear, concise, logical and practical treatise on written Arithmetic extant, following as it does the plan of Colburn's First Lessons—the two make a complete and popular series.
Copies furnished for examination on receipt of postage—18 cents—on application to BROWN, TAGGARD & CHASE,
25 and 29 Cornhill, Boston.

Whig and Courier.

From the Knickerbocker for February
A Quiet Picture.

The shifting shadows lay
In changing quaintness on the bare white floor,
Creeping in softly through the open door,
In a still, drowsy way,
Coming through mazes of the ivy vines
That fall in shapeless masses from the pines

The fire-light gay and bright,
With cheery blushes for its ruddy charms,
Steals trembling from the old hearth's huge black arms,
Where, in their own rich light,
The giant logs in splendor fall away
In glowing shapes among the ashes gray

The baby on the floor,
With tiny hands closed o'er her pearly toes,
Watches the fire blaze as it comes and goes,
And wonders more and more
Whence comes the red light on the snowy feet,
And strives to catch it in her fingers sweet.

The happy mother sits
With folded hands, her weary work all done,
With the last smiling of the harvest sun,
And lists, her eyes love lit,
To the low prattle of her eldest born,
Whose cheek is dewy as the early morn.

In homespun garb of gray,
The father sitting by the window wide
Unfolds his paper with an honest pride,
And, in his homely way,
Reads of the pomp of state—its wealth and art—
With scarce one envious longing in his heart

Upon the lowly steps
The grandame watches for the coming moon,
While murmurs of some half remembered tune
Drop from her faded lips,
She dreams again of olden days more fair,
Nor marks the shadows flitting o'er her hair

O baby, glad with play!
O mother, knowing not the heart's record!
O father, wearied only by your toil!
O grandame, old and gray!
Would that the quiet of your day's decline
Might hush the throbbing of this life of mine!

Extracts from the Remarks of Mr. Blaine of Augusta on the Cuban Resolves.

In House of Representatives, February 12, 1859

It is well known, Mr Speaker, that whether fortunate or unfortunate, simulated or real, there is an allowed split in the ranks of the Democracy of this State in regard to the policy of the National Administration. The gentleman from Camden, (Mr Smart,) may be considered the leader of the faction that would refuse to abide by the tests enunciated at Washington, while on the other hand the gentleman from Lowell (Mr Porter,) stands on this floor as the Representative of the most straitest sect of Buchanan Democrats. The gentleman from Camden scrupulously once arranged his wires and enunciated his platform containing the "squatter sovereignty" idea, which the President denounces as a monstrous heresy. From this dogma it was understood that the gentleman from Lowell earnestly dissented, and he formerly protested against it in the name of all the Cullisons, Post Masters and Tide Waiters, from the New Hampshire line to the waters of the St Croix. It was expected, therefore, that when any political movement should be made on this floor by the gentleman from Lowell, acting as the representative and accredited spokesman for the Moors, the Leavitts, the Dickersons, and the Macdonalds, it would be an unmistakably loyal to the measures of the Administration, "all and singular," that no doubt or double meaning could in any way be attached to it. I must, therefore, express my unfeigned astonishment at the timid, hesitating, timid and inconclusive character of the Resolves offered by the gentleman from Lowell in favor of the acquisition of Cuba.

Like a great many other political productions, these Resolves are remarkable rather for what they omit than for what they express, and are still more notable for what they imply. They omit every declaration that could be tortured into an approval of the measure now pending in the Senate of the United States for the acquisition of Cuba. What do they express? Nothing but a mild approval of any honorable measure that may be brought forward for the acquisition of Cuba. What do they imply? Why, plainly and palpably, that the proposition now pending known as the Slidell measure, is not an honorable one.

They ask us to approve an "honorable" measure, mark you! not Mr Slidell's measure, not the measure conceived and brought forth at the White House, not the measure carried to the Capitol by the Fidus Achates of the President; not the measure now eliciting the support of every Administration Senator and the Illinois Rebel besides. No, indeed, not this, the Resolves before us ask no approval of this gigantic, alarming and corrupting proposition, but they ask us to instruct our Senators in Congress to support some "honorable" measure, and the inevitable implication is that the pending measure is not an honorable one.

The French have a saying that "condemnation by implication is harder to endure than flat opposition," and I commend the moral of the adage to these Democrats who, when expected to be "first in the uttermost ... faithless," have hesitated and faltered and fallen back.

So far, Mr. Speaker, as the Resolves under consideration imply disapproval of the Slidell measure, they have my hearty concurrence and I have no doubt the concurrence of a large majority of this House. I object to their adoption, however, because they express in no indirect manner what I wish to see asserted explicitly and with emphasis. The proposition to place thirty millions of dollars at the disposal of the President and to run the nation in debt for the purpose of raising the money, to surrender to him the power to make treaties, annex territory and form States; to create him absolute Dictator with the Purse of the nation in one hand and the Sword in the other, to have Peace or War, Prosperity or Misfortune follow at his will, or be decided by his errors. Such a proposition, I say, is too monstrous to be entertained for one moment by any one who values the preservation of constitutional rights and the perpetuity of a Republican Union.

A dozen years ago when our country was in actual war with a neighboring nation, when it was supposed that peace could be promoted and hastened by placing three millions of dollars at the disposal of the President, the proposition was regarded as so dangerous, that staid, conservative and dignified Senators thought themselves justified in resorting to methods of opposition almost revolutionary in their character, in order to compass its defeat. The precedent was regarded as a dangerous one, and was even admitted to be so by those who sustained the measure—the only plausible defense of which was that the fund appropriated might and would hasten the peace which was so generally desired. But now when we are in profound "amity and concord" with all the great nations of the earth, when a change in our foreign relations would most probably be for the worse, it is deliberately proposed to place under the control of the President the enormous sum of thirty millions of dollars, in order to ... either to ... corrupt Spanish officials into a transfer of their most valuable dependency and, ... get us into a war ... a sort of premium to the ... of Cuban acquisition. The proposition ... here at President Polk's ... of war was, as I have ... dangerous, and yet now it ... proposed to give President Buchanan ten times as large a sum ... of secret diplomacy he ... to get us into a war. Will any of the reverend divines who have given us such charming "apothegic" views, or endeavored to teach us the duty of restraining one's own mother to slavery, and who have perpetually urged the churches and the Tract Society to speak softly about the sins and shames of slavery, will they now take their stand in public and accuse this father of wrong doing, of law breaking, and justify the throttling him into a common jail, for thus having given, to a hunted fugitive from a cruel and unjust bondage, and that fugitive his own son, what the valiant Roderick Dhu said, even his mortal enemy, when in need, should never ask in vain—

We repeat the query—will any of these volunteer apologists and champions of slavery condemn the father who now lies in the common jail?—Boston Bee.

THE VOTE ON THE OREGON BILL.—The principal objection of Republicans to the Oregon Bill was, we suppose, that in their view the Constitution was anti-Republican and in conflict with that of the United States, and with public treaties. Now had we been in Congress, we are free to say that we should have voted against the admission of Oregon—not only because, in our view, her constitution is anti Republican and unjust in many of its features, but also because we would never consent to the admission of Oregon with only 40,000 or 50,000 inhabitants, so long as Kansas was refused admission by the majority and kept out until she has at least 93,000 inhabitants. Kansas—undoubtedly a Republican State, being kept out, we should feel justified in voting against Oregon, a democratic State, with a smaller population than required for Kansas We say upon either or both of these grounds, we would have voted against admitting Oregon at this time—especially when by the partiality proposed to be shown to Oregon, the Presidential question may be decided in the next Congress, in favor of the pro-slavery nominee of the Charleston Convention. Still we know that much may justly and honestly be said on the other side. Plausible and even strong arguments might have been and were used to induce the Republicans to vote for the admission Some Republicans were influenced by these opposite considerations and voted for the bill We do not condemn them for so doing. It was a question in which different minds would honestly come to different judgments. It was no party question, and there could be no party test applied,—and we are not disposed to censure those who thought best to vote differently from what we might have desired.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE BILL.—It would seem by the despatch of Wednesday night, that the bill donating 6 000 000 acres of land to the several States, for the benefit of Agricultural Colleges, had passed both branches of Congress and that its opponents were reduced to their last hope—that is, a Presidential veto. By the terms of the distribution we suppose that 150,000 or 175,000 acres would come to Maine—but all the conditions of the donation are such (unless the bill is materially amended since last session) that we doubt whether the Legislature of Maine, in the present condition of her finances, would be likely to accept the gift We believe the former bill donated the land, not for the establishment but for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges—it being required, as a condition precedent of the grant, that each State shall establish one such College at least, out of its own funds, and that the interest of the proceeds of the land may be applied only to maintain professorships and other means of instruction. The State was required, we think, not only to furnish the site and the buildings, but to keep them in repair,—and also to be at all the expense of selling the lands. If such are the provisions of the act, it will be seen that it imposes a large expenditure upon the State, at the commencement, and a considerable annual outlay thereafter.

HORRIBLE—IF TRUE.—The New York papers publish accounts of the discovery of most atrocious cruelties perpetrated upon helpless infants, placed with poor women to nurse by the alms-house authorities The police, in searching the house of Mrs Mary Clough for stolen goods, found in a dark room three cradles, and in each an infant covered with filth There beds were rotten with filth, and the rags that covered them but little better. The children lay motionless as death, evidently drugged, and if they were pinched or rolled over they gave no signs of life. Each of these was a living skeleton One of them lay on its side, with its arm in its mouth, which it had sucked out of shape in its endeavor to obtain nutriment. Mrs Clough was paid $1 per week for taking care of the children, and drew large quantities of clothing of all kinds for their use. They were visited once a month by an alms-house matron, and quite often by one of the governors—and yet this horrible cruelty had been in progress for months.

A national Sunday-School Teachers' Convention will be held at Philadelphia commencing on the 23d inst.

Fugitives from Labor.

The clause in the Constitution providing for the rendition of fugitives from labor is the following:

"No person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor; but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due."

In order that the claimant of such a fugitive may obtain him, it is the duty of Congress to enact a law to enable him, by some process, to do so. The provision would be useless without such an enactment. The common reader sees nothing in the provision objectionable.—It commands itself to his good sense, as a very proper provision, to enable him to recover his apprentice, or his bound servant, in case of his escape from the State, if he desires so to do. But he will be astonished to learn that Congress, instead of making such an enactment, has converted the clause into a provision to enable slaveholders to recover slaves that may escape from one State into another; and, in order to carry it out, has made the celebrated Fugitive Slave Law, and ignored the right of the master to recover his apprentice. Such is the fact, as the following item from the N. Y. Post of the 5th inst., will show:

A White Boy Arrested under the Fugitive Slave Law — Yesterday afternoon Philip Strickhamore, a shoemaker's apprentice, who ran away from his employer, in Philadelphia, was brought before United States' Commissioner Betts, to whom an application was made under the Fugitives law of 1850, to send the absconding boy back. Mr. Betts held that the act of 1850 applied only to slaves escaping from another State, and not to apprentice boys He accordingly ordered the boy to be discharged. It appears that previous to this the boy had been taken before Mayor Tiemann and Justice Welsh, both of whom declined to interfere in the matter. O.

THE INDIANA SENATORS. On Monday last (says the Boston Journal,) the usurping Senators, Bright and Fitch, were confirmed in their seats by a strict party vote, unless the names of Messrs Broderick and Douglas in the list of nays constitute an exception. This was a vote to the effect that the United States Senate, and not in all cases the Legislatures of the respective States, may choose Senators; for it cannot be denied that the Legislature of Indiana, by its two component branches, never elected Messrs Bright and Fitch to the seats they now hold. A greater piece of injustice to a sovereign State was never enacted within the Capitol, and we are glad to see that Senator Seward has declared his determination to move every year, so long as he shall have that privilege, that the resolution admitting Messrs Bright and Fitch be expunged from the records of the Senate.

Mr. Jared Smith of Williamstown, Ohio, has just taken out a patent for a cast iron watch dog, for stores, &c. The affair seems to be gotten up on the watch principle, for you have only to wind up the tail of the animal to make him bowl twice every second all night.

THE SEATING ELECTIONS.—The annual spring elections for the choice of municipal officers will soon transpire, and it becomes the friends of sound political principles to be on hand and see to it that the pro slavery democracy do not gain any advantage at the polls. For the same reason that our State and National affairs are safer in Republican hands, our municipal interests will be more surely guarded by sound and reliable Republicans—Experience has sufficiently demonstrated that the Republicans are never gainers by fusing with their opponents in town and city elections, but in the end generally suffer disadvantages and loss. Whenever the Democrats are in minority, they are usually very liberal, and do not think it expedient to have party politics brought into municipal elections. They deem it unjust that citizen nomination should be made and called without regard to the political views of the men elected. Generous and magnanimous they are, and harmless as doves when they are thus in minority. But in towns where they have the numerical strength they are unanimously in favor of sound democratic principles and men always, nothing less and nothing more.

We trust our Republican friends will everywhere exercise the part of sound discretion, and see to it that sound and firm Republicans are put in nomination and elected. Let there be a prompt and punctual attendance at the polls, the proper arrangements having been duly made to get out a full vote, keeping up a firm and determined Republican organization and discipline. There can be no doubt that "the democracy" under their newly selected leaders are making an zeal and vigorous efforts to carry as many towns this spring as possible. It is true the Republicans throughout the State were aware to their duty, and fully prepared to meet their opponents at every point, that not an inch of their present vantage ground be lost.—Ken Journal

[This is good advice—and we trust our Republicans friends will give heed thereto.]

PERILS OF SKATING A young man in Boston, desirous of the company of a young lady, during the skating carnival, sent her a note inviting her to accompany him. They met at an appointed rendezvous, when the young lady informed her gallant that she had no skates. The remark—"pray select a pair," was as ready as the utmost gallantry could require, and the shopman accordingly displayed a fine pair of seven dollar and a half articles, and was rewarded only by a high bred stare of astonishment on the part of the lady, and the curt inquiry, "have you no better ones?"—"Certainly, madam," said the obliging salesman, as he unrolled a pair of twenty-five dollar runners and laid them before her on the counter. "Ah! those will answer nicely; I will keep these, wouldn't you?" said she, with a glance at her once happy but now dumbfounded friend. "Oh—by all means," came fluttering forth from the young gent, as with an odd grimace the money was plunked, and the twain left their sport.

Some fellows in Newcastle, Pa., recently started a society, which purported to be a lodge of the Sons of Malta. One of the initiated stated that after the ordeal, he signed what was represented to be the constitution of the order, but which turned out to be an order for a keg of beer upon one of the town brewers. The club had been indulging in lager at the expense of the new member for several weeks. Boston Post.

The weather was very favorable for observing the eclipse yesterday morning. The sky was without a cloud, and the moon, ere she entered the shadow was sending down her fullest flood of light upon the sleeping city and the wintry landscape The eclipse commenced, by Bangor time, at 24 minutes past 4, and became total at 23 minutes past 5. The moon remained in the shadow, about an hour and a half—the total eclipse continuing till nearly 7 o'clock—or until after the moon's setting. The eclipse was observed, we believe, by a considerable number of our citizens, who took this opportunity of testing the advantages of early rising. A lunar eclipse in the morning is a rare spectacle.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM LEVEE.—The Levee for the benefit of the Female Orphan Asylum, held last evening at Norombega, was eminently successful in its object. The Hall was crowded—more than 1500 people being present, as we should judge—giving probably a net sum of near $300 to the funds of the Institution. This is very gratifying to its friends, and creditable to the benevolent impulses of our people.

The entertainment consisted of various dramatic scenes and dialogues,—most of them original—arranged and presented by a number of ladies and gentlemen, who kindly gave their services as amateur performers, and who sustained their parts admirably.

The pieces were as follows:

1. "The Old Folks at Home,"—an elaborate and successful representation of a country gathering in a farm-house of the olden time, where, with the primitive habits of industry, all sorts of work were going on in the room where the family and visitors were assembled. The stirring housewife in antique costume, with her girls and boys and her visitors, were busily employed in sewing and darning and knitting, carding and spinning, and reeling the yarn, while in one corner the itinerant shoemaker is making the family shoes for the winter—and in another a smart and tidy maid, striving with perseverance to "bring" an obstinate churning of butter—and Solomon shelling of corn in primitive fashion on the edge of the shovel, over the half bushel measure, and anon slyly throwing the cobs at the old ladies and children. Jonathan does the agreeable all round in Yankee style—and one of the elders sings "Long Live America" in a style which would have done credit to "Billings and Holden."

2. Was the old dialogue to which the Deacon contends so indignantly that the earth couldn't possibly turn round without spilling the contents of his mill-pond.

3. "John Anderson my Joe,"—in costume and character—well sung, with the tremulousness appropriate to age.

4. "The Widow Bedott at Home"—when even the old lady had a "reckoning" with the peddler—but wherein Jabe gets the better of her in another trade.

5. "Auld Lang Syne"—sung in costume and character, by a dozen gentlemen, representing a jovial Scottish gathering—where the comely hostess and the pretty tripping maid replenish the glasses as they are emptied in pledges and toasts. The best piece of the evening.

6 "Old and New Style"—a ludicrous burlesque upon former and present fashions in dress. The astonishment of the antique beaux and belles, at the sudden advent among them of a modern exquisite with the most marvellous specimen of crinoline upon his arm, was admirably expressed.

7 Charade—A-rgus took—in three scenes—wherein the recent Aroostook miracle experienced by our quondam friend, D-lavan, was represented to the life—commencing with the wonderful "sketching" of Mount Katahdin by the artist, and passing on to the courtship, elopement, discovery, pursuit, and final catastrophe in which the dumb speaks This piece closed with a distress ng view of "Aroostook as it is"—supposed to be by "The Mute Artist"—distressing, we mean, to "contributors" and victims.

8. The entertainment was closed by the reading of Mr. Maddocks' poem—of which we will in charity say as little as possible.

Excellent music was furnished by the Bangor Cornet Band—which, during the intervals between the performances, executed some favorite and beautiful pieces to the gratification of the audience, and with much credit to themselves.

THE DEATH OF CAPT. SARGENT.—Our informant did not state correctly the place where Capt. S. T. Sargent was drowned as reported yesterday. It was not at the mouth of Fraser's river, but some distance south of that river—at the port of Teekalet, on Puget Sound, Washington Territory. He had been to Fraser's river. Capt. Sargent visited Maine about two years ago, and was then married to a daughter of Edward Wiggin Esq., of this city—returning soon afterwards to the Pacific coast with his wife.

DESPONDENCY. The fine building on Congress street, Portland, built by the Maine Mechanic Association, is now completed, and will be dedicated, with appropriate services, on Wednesday evening next. The Address will be by Charles Holden. After the exercises of dedication,—which will be in the splendid hall of the building,—the Association, with their guests, will adjourn to the dining hall, in the third story, where a banquet will be served up.

Sch Rose, Capt. Loring C. Oliver, of Bath, from Elizabethport, bound to Boston with a cargo of coal, struck on Race Point, Fisher's Island, on morning of 14th inst—bilged and is full of water.

Supreme Judicial Court—Criminal Term.

Cutting J. presiding.

THURSDAY, Feb. 17.

The case of the State vs. Merrill S. Buck went to the jury in the afternoon. Verdict, guilty of stealing the larger robe—the smaller not being sufficiently identified.

Judge Appleton took the Bench in the afternoon, when Buck was put on trial on an indictment found at the last term, for breaking and entering the store of Joseph Forbes, and stealing clothing therefrom—which was not concluded when the court adjourned. Kimball for defendant.

There will be a religious Conference at the Universalist Church in this city, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

ANOTHER GOOD CROP.—Mr James Crane, of Bridgewater, raised the past season, 104 bushels of excellent wheat from five bushels of seed. He says if the farmers do not raise good wheat, it is their own fault.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Tuesday evening, as Mr Pease, of Corinth, was riding alone in his sleigh between Bar Mills and Moderation, he was suddenly seized by some one from behind who choked him and took from his pocket $150 Mr. Pease gave the alarm and the robber was pursued and caught under a bridge near by and the money recovered. He proved to be a young man from Fryeburg We did not ascertain his name.—Portland Advertiser.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A lad by the name of Moses Wiggin, aged 16 years, son of Daniel Wiggin was killed this morning by falling through the sky-light of Lancaster Hall. He was employed in covering the glass panels in the roof of the Hall with paper. One of the glass panels being open, and covered with paper, he stepped through it, falling on the settees in the Hall. He was killed instantly.—State of Maine, 16th.

NEW LOCATION. The Rising Sun is the title of the neatly printed weekly, now published at Richmond, Me., by the Freewill Baptist Association. George Plummer, Agent. A. W. Hobbs, Editor. P. O. Vickery, Printer.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler of Saco has a call to Poughkeepsie, New York.

FAMILY PHOTOGRAPH. The famous Swett family having its head quarters in Hampden, and several of which reside in this city, met on Wednesday—all the children being present, thirteen in number, seven bro hers and six sisters, and sat for a group photograph at Jordan's Saloon.

DIVISION OF FRANKFORT. This case has been before the Committee on Division of Towns several days, and a large number of witnesses introduced. John A. Peters, Esq., appears for the Petitioners, and Hon. Adams Frost for the Remonstrants. The arguments were to have been made yesterday.

Lafayette Grover, the Representative from Oregon, is a native of Bethel, Oxford County, Me. He was educated at Bowdoin College, and studied law in Philadelphia, where he was admitted to the bar in 1850. In the same year he emigrated to Salem, Oregon, and entered upon the practice of his profession. In 1851 he was elected prosecuting officer of the Territory, and in 1852, auditor of accounts.

SPEED We saw this morning, two teams dashing down Middle street at a furious pace and the drivers vociferating at the top of their lungs We think such sport should be condemned by every one, and men who have no more respect for the safety of others than to drive at such speed in one of our public thoroughfares should be made to respect the law. We were a little surprised to see the drivers turn back, after driving down as far as Wood's Hotel, showing that they considered Middle Street a superior place for trying horses.—State of Maine.

SUICIDE. We learn that Mrs Ruth Collins, wife of Lyrus Collins of West Gardiner, committed suicide by hanging herself on Sunday the 13th inst. No cause assigned.—Rising Sun

OUTLAWS.—Two brothers of the name of Lawes, creating a disturbance at the Dublin Theatre, were called to order by the celebrated Feux M'Carthy, who happened to be in the same box. One of them presenting his card said: "You shall hear from us, our name is Lawes. "Lawes, is it?" quoth Feux, "then I'll give you satisfaction, I'll give you an addition to your name," and exercising his well known strength, hauled them out of the box, exclaiming, "Now, by the powers, you're both Out-Lawes."

To the Citizens of Bangor.

CITY OF BANGOR, January, 1859

MR. LEWIS WATERMAN, proposes to number the Streets of our city upon a plan which will mainly obviate the necessity of renumbering afterwards, on account of the erection of new buildings, as each street is to be carefully measured, and the numbers to be arranged with reference to such probable new erections He comes with recommendations from other cities and towns where he has heretofore performed similar services, which are satisfactory to us. It is hoped that the citizens of Bangor will avail themselves of this opportunity for effecting the proposed improvement, the expense belongs to

PERRY DAVIS'

Vegetable Pain Killer!

REV. T. ALLEN, writing from Tavoy, Burmah, says—Within the past four years I have used and disposed of above five hundred bottles, but am now out Please send me a fresh supply (through the Mission Rooms) as soon as you can, say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Karens and Burmans I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasions to use it both on myself and others—One night, while sleeping in an open Zayat, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot On examination I found I had been bitten by a Centipede I immediately applied the Pain Killer; and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep

Rev. E. L. Van Meter, of Bassein, India, writes.—Here let me assure you that we prize your Pain Killer very highly For the first two or three years of our residence in India we were ignorant of its valuable properties, and did not use it, but now would hardly feel safe without it for a single day Only a few nights since Mrs Van Meter was stung by a scorpion, and intense pain was instantaneously throughout the arm, and soon a numbness of the fingers followed By the continued application of the Pain Killer for an hour or more, and at intervals during the night, the alarming symptoms were subdued, and in the morning only a slight soreness was felt in the finger. I gave it in a severe case of Fever and Ague, according to directions, and it acted like a charm, breaking it up at once. The Karens have great confidence in it.

Mr. W. L. Carpenter writes from Calcutta,—"Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer is a very valuable medicine, and most people here that have used it entertain a high opinion of its worth."

ARRIVAL OF THE

Prince Albert,

AT ST. JOHNS, N. F.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Feb. 17.

The steamer Prince Albert, from Galway 5th with Liverpool advices per mail of 4th, and by telegraph of 5th, has arrived at this port.

The Prince Albert had a very boisterous passage, and received slight damage. She has nearly a full compliment of passengers, among whom are Wm Smith O Brien, of Ireland, and Wm Malloy, of New York, all well.

John O Lever has been returned to Parliament for Galway

Queen Victoria opened Parliament in person on the 3d inst She says in her speech. "I receive from all foreign powers assurances of friendly feelings. To cultivate and confirm these feelings, to maintain inviolate the faith of public treaties and contribute as far as my influence can extend to preservation general peace are the objects of my unceasing solicitude"

In respect to Mexico the speech says: "The state of that Republic, distracted by civil wars has induced me to carry forbearance to the utmost limit, in regard to wrongs and indignities to which British residents have been subjected at the hands of the two contending parties They have at length been carried to such an extent that I have been compelled to give instructions to the commander of our naval forces in those seas to demand, and if necessary enforce, reparation,"

Lord Melville in the House of Lords, and Lord A merston in the Commons, complained of the silence of the speech in regard to the threatening state of the Italian question, and other matters Derby and DeIsraeli expressed confidence in the maintainance of peace."

Warlike rumors were still in circulation, but there is nothing decisive.

France

Continued warlike preparations are made.

It's rumored that Duke of Malakoff will be removed from London and succeeded by M. De Montebello.

Prince Napoleon and his bride had arrived at Paris.

Melbourne mails to Dec 18th, had reached England Gold valued at five hundred and sixty eight thousand pounds was on the way

The City of Manchester left Liverpool on the 2d for New York The features of her news were as follows.

Warlike preparations were going forward actively in France, but the ministerial papers recommend to keep silent on the subject.

Latest letters speak of war symptoms being decidedly on the increase

Great anxiety is felt for the Emperor's speech at the opening of the Legislature on the 7th It is rumored he is preparing a surprise for the world, and that war is certain.

The Minister of the colonies has decided the immigration of Africans shall be superseded by Chinese

Rumors are circulated in England of extensive warlike preparations, including an increase of 3000 men for the navy.

The marriage of Prince Napoleon and the king of Sardinia's daughter was celebrated at Turin on the 30th The bridal party forthwith started for Paris

Turin letters say matters looked slightly more pacific there

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb 17th.

SENATE —Mr. Hunter, from the Finance Committee, reported the executive, legislative and Judicial appropriation bill.

Mr Mason, from the committee on Foreign Relations, moved to print the report of the United States Commissioner to Vancouver's Island Agreed to.

Mr Wilson's resolution, recently laid over, calling for detailed information respecting the Butterfield overland mail contract, was then taken up and agreed to.

Mr Wade of Ohio, moved to postpone all prior orders and take up the Homestead bill.

Mr Johnson of Tennessee, also urged it

The bill was finally taken up, 26 to 23, and read, when Mr Hunter endeavored to have it postponed for the Consular appropriation bill

Messrs Wilson, Stuart, Shields, Seward and others opposed it

Mr Hunter finally moved to take up the Consular bill, which was carried by the casting vote of the Vice President, the ballot standing 28 to 28

Mr Pugh moved an amendment to the Diplomatic and Consular bill proposing to abolish all grades of ministers excepting one and fixing salary of the grade at $10,000 and Secretary's at $3000, but all missions are to be special and for reasons given to the Senate at the time of nomination.

Consuls General to be abolished.

The bill was laid aside for the Cuban proposition when Mr Chandler took the floor.

Chandler energetically denounced the measure and characterized it as worthy of the ... and ... of its author the brigand James Buchanan, but unworthy of the President of the United States. The thirty million is a vast bribery and corruption fund, and the purchase of Cuba is claptrap and a vain attempt to save the democratic party from that annihilation the almighty has destined for it.

HOUSE.—The Sergeant-at-Arms brought in John Cassin of Philadelphia who was arraigned before the House for not appearing before the printing investigation committee. He disclaimed all intention of disrespect and he was discharged.

Mr English called up the bill regulating postage on newspapers and periodicals, and declared it was proposed to tax newspapers passing in exchange The design is that periodical dealers shall receive mail matter on the same terms as regular subscribers and that maps and lithographs may be carried for one cent per ounce. Heretofore such matter has been excluded from the mails.

Mr Colfax said that by the phraseology of one of the sections every newspaper publisher would be compelled to prepay postage on his entire circulation passing through the mails a change asked for by no one.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the army appropriation bill.

Mr Davis of Mississippi, defended the democratic party from Mr. Garnett's charges of extravagance, and accounted for the increased expenditures by referring to the extensive mail facilities, the Utah war, and expenses attending new territories &c.

Mr Stanton said he did not advocate the reduction simply as a question of economy but because the army was now used as an instrument of despotism in the enforcement of offensive laws and perverting the first principles of civil liberty

Without action the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb 16.

In the Senate,

Mr Hamlin, from the committee on the Judiciary, reported that bill additional to chap. 71 of the Revised Statutes, (in relation to administration on estates of deceased persons) ought to pass.

Mr Williamson from the committee on Education, reported a resolve in favor of the Maine Wesleyan Seminary and Female Collegiate Institute, (granting $5000 absolutely to the Seminary, and $2500 to the Institute, in case an equal amount is first raised by the friends of the Institution) The resolve was read once.

Mr. Hamlin presented the petition of the Penobscot Mutual Fire Insurance Company, for amendment to their charter, also, remonstrance of Moses Hodsdon and others of Kenduskeag, against the petition of Rufus Dwinel Referred

In the House,

Papers presented and referred—Remonstrances of Dearborn Halleman and 29 others, of John D Ridley and 21 others, of Stillman Colson and 16 others, of P. I Houk and 55 others, of Nahum Warren and others, of John H Smith and 51 others, of Albion C Reis and 59 others, of Clark Hersey and 11 others, of L. Manna and 36 others, of Wm Jameson and 40 others, and of H B. Emery and 32 others, all against the petition of Rufus Dwinel in relation to drift stuff edgings, &c; petition of officers and members of B Company of Orland for aid to the citizen soldiery, of Daniel Hopkins of Fort Fairfield, for indemnity for houses seized by E. C. Blake, Deputy Collector, at Fort Fairfield, A D 1854

The bill to provide in part, for the expenditures of Government, was read the third time and the question being on its passage to be engrossed

Mr Stackpole of Waterville, moved to lay on the table. He wished to know something of what we are voting to appropriate From the simple reading of the bill, he had heard some articles that he should object to.

Mr Prentiss of Bangor, explained, that if the money was not needed, the Governor could not draw his warrant for it, and it would still remain in the Treasury

Mr Laberee moved to lay on the table, and print,

The House refused to print and postponed the further consideration of the bill, until tomorrow

Bill an act giving farther remedies against Attorneys, assigned for this morning, was then taken up.

Mr Burbank presented an amendment which provided that the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court should appoint three judicious persons "learned in the law," in each county, whose duty it should be to examine all applicants for admission to the bar, and that a certificate of qualification from these Examiners should be necessary to such candidates.

Mr McCrillis said this was the most sensible amendment to any bill that has been yet offered to this Legislature. This provision would keep out of a profession that was worthy a life long study, pettifoggers and those who were never qualified to enter it. He thought it had been "run into the ground" much of late years, and he was glad to see a movement in the right direction. He had some doubts, however, whether this amendment was in order, as it was not, to his eye germain with the ostensible object of the bill.

After some objections to the amendment on the score of its being out of order, Mr Burbank withdrew it, but gave notice that he should introduce an order, directing inquiry into the expediency of such a measure—Which he subsequently did

The bill then passed to be engrossed.

Order adopted—By Mr Prentiss of Bangor Ordered, That the Judiciary Committee inquire what further provisions are necessary, in relation to exceptions in criminal cases, so as to prevent the great expense now accruing to every county in the State, by the filing of frivolous exceptions, for the sake of delaying sentence.

Reports of Committees accepted—On Elections by Mr Stackpole—that S. P. Brown, Esq, is elected from the Orland district.

On Finance, by Mr Pike. An act to provide for the assessment of a State Tax for the year 1859, amounting to two hundred thousand, nine hundred and nineteen dollars, thirty cents, ($200,919 30.) Read an assigned.

Five Dollars Reward

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING,

AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician

IS it not a truth that wet on the extremities wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and uneasy, but when its water-proof then is remedied. By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water-proof, but likewise softens the eathers, and will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery with my boots constantly in water, and have no had my feet wet during that time. I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF HONEY MAKING.

☞ Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE, subscriber, having purchased the right of making and selling Davis' Patent Bee Hive for the Counties of Penobscot, Lincoln and Sagadahoc, which has been received with so much favor, and taken the first premiums wherever exhibited has introduced an improvement into the Bee Hive and is now prepared to make the same in connection with the Davis Platform, and to sell rights to towns and individuals.

This Bee Hive, thus improved, is admitted by persons acquainted with the honey-making business to be superior to every thing yet invented for the purpose. It covers all the requisitions for the profitable maintenance of the apiary, by providing for ventilation at all seasons of the year—room for the exercise and feed of the bees—convenience for the removal of excrement, for the proper separation of the swarms, and generally for the health and comfort of the work-rs.

The boxes used in this Hive for storing honey, are the best adapted in their size, for the market, holding from three to six pounds each.

The subscriber wishes to purchase one hundred swarms of bees in exchange for bee hives and individual rights.

For sale, fifty swarms of Bees, with the new hives.

DR. HOBENSACK'S Worm Syrup and Liver Pills.

PROBABLY the reason why Worm Medicines so frequently fail of any good effect is the fact that they contain no qualities except as Worm Killers. Consequently in many instances where we mistake the symptoms of disease and destroy the worms, when the cause of disease is not worms but a derangement of the system and consequent debility and ill health no good results follows, whereas in the use of Dr Hobensack's remedies, it being a curative remedial agent, as well as a worm killer, the patient immediately gets well, though worms are brought away.

This it will be readily seen that it possesses many advantages over other worm medicines, as it is not only sure to kill and bring away the worms, but build up and restores the patient to general health. Price 25 cents.

American Safety Paper Manufacturing Company of N. Y.

Capital $500,000.

A. NICHOLAS, President. Office, 70 Wall-st.

A Perfect Security against all manner of Fraud or Counterfeiting on Paper.—To Prevent Photographic and Anastatic Counterfeits, Erasures, Transfers or Alterations.

HAVING purchased the Patent for the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the Chemical Paper in America, invented and patented in England by Henar Goldm, a celebrated chemist and officer in the British army, it is hardly necessary to say that the Paper is recommended by Mr Kent, Assayer of the U. S. Mint, Mr. Lyman of the New York Clearing House, and Meade Brothers, extensive and skillful photographers, 233 Broadway, N. Y. The latter say that no alteration can be made on a check or bank note printed on the Safety Paper. Below is our list of prices:

Bank Checks—25 cts. per lb.
Bank Bills—$25 for 1000 sheets.
Bills of Exchange—$25 for 1000 sheets
Promissory Notes—40 cts. per lb
Sight and Time Drafts—$25 for 1000 sheets
Insurance Policies—40 cts. per lb.
Railroad Stocks and Bonds—40 cts. per lb
Bank and State Stocks—40 cts. per lb.
Bonds and Mortgages—40 cts. per lb.
Wills and Deeds—40 cts. per lb.

For wrapping Silks and other fine articles it is excellent, as it prevents moths. 40 cts. a lb.

For Indentures and Agreements, 40 cts a lb.

All State and County Records should always be printed or written on this paper, as the chemicals inserted in the pulp not only prevents erasure or transfer, but makes it lasting as time.

For Southern climates it is excellent, and much superior to any other, as the moistness of the climate does not destroy it,—the properties inserted in the pulp being a preventive. In all the Southern States, Cuba, the West Indies, and the Central American States, no public records can be kept over 20 years, written on the ordinary paper, while the silk and other chemicals inserted in this paper makes it indestructible by the ravages of time. It is also proof against moths, rats and other vermin, which feast on and destroy all other paper now in use.

The Company have now in operation Mills in Morris County, N J., of about 300 horse power, and are able to fill all orders for Paper at the shortest notice.

All orders for the Paper must be addressed to A. NICHOLAS, President of the Company, No. 70 Wall street, New York

American & Foreign Patents.

B. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837,) 7G State St., opposite Kilby St.,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries Caveats, Specifications, Lon s, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar Assignments recorded at Washington

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unexcelled by any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given, prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to Patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

Mr E B Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications in all but one of which patents have been granted and that one is pending. From Sept. 1st, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents

Important to Horse Owners.

PORTSMOUTH, N H May 20 1858

T C Butler, Esq

Dear Sir—During the last year I have sold some 300 packages of your Miner's Condition Powders, for Horses and Colts, and in no instance that I have heard of, have they failed of giving entire satisfaction

I regard them as standing at the head of all Horse medicines now in the market and am sustained in this opinion by all the stable keepers and owners of horses who have used them in this vicinity

I cheerfully give my testimony in favor of your Powders, and advise all interested to give them a trial. Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) WILLIAM R PRESTON
